				to conduct a compliance check at the business and report back with what we had observed.
				On 06/26/2020, at about 1317 hours, NIPD conducted a compliance check as requested. The officer observed six patrons and two employees inside the business. One employee was wearing a face mask and the other one was not. Of the six patrons two were wearing a face mask and the other four were not. NIPD spoke with the assistant manager about the complaint and the request from the AG's Office. The assistant manager was advised of the order in place to protect both employee and patrols and was advised to comply with the order.
				NIPD then called the AG's Office back and reported back what was observed during the compliance check. The AG's Office will call back if needed or a second compliance check is requested.
