"We had a gentleman come by the high school to give us books that he supposedly found in the woods by his house. One book has an old Mascenic stamp but none are current textbooks. He was driving a gray truck with a Mass plate and our receptionist remembered hearing that there was a vehicle with the same description given, by the middle school student in Greenville who was approached on the 23rd by a man at the school bus stop for a ride. While the driver descriptions differ between what my receptionist and the middle school student saw, the vehicle description is oddly similar. Just wanted to let you know in case anything else occurs. Feel free to call me if you need additional information or have questions." |
