RPT - Report Taken Police responded to the report of three cars off the road on River Rd due to poor road conditions. Police responded and noticed three vehicles off the road, one seriously damaged, one stuck in a snowbank, and one already pulled out. All occupants were out of the vehicle and standing by at the above noted address. Police noticed poor road conditions and notified New Ipswich DOT and requested assistance from NI Emergency Management for a road closure. Police requested a tow to the scene. Contact was made with all parties involved. All driver's cited the road conditions as a contributing factor to the accident. Two cars were deemed to be able to leave under their own power and are not deemed reportable accidents. One vehicle sustained substantial damaged and was considered reportable. SVAS and NIFD toned to the scene for medical services and leaking fluids. Maillets towed NH [REDACTED] from the scene. Road closure remained until the road was treated. No parties were transported by SVAS. See report and FIs for further.

03/20/2017 09:23:00 03/20/2017 09:23:00	7094	WOOSTER, KRISTEL 1703200261	Suspicious Person or Activity SUBJECT CAME TO THE PD TO REPORT A PAST TENSE INCIDENT OF SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY.	RPT - Report Taken Wooster reported that on 12/23/2016, at 12:02p.m., she observed a gray Ford Edge with Massachusetts Registration parked on Timbertop Road at the intersection of Willard Farm Road. Wooster advised that the vehicle was parked near her mailbox and was occupied by a white male subject. Wooster asked the male if he needed assistance. The male declined any assistance and Wooster left the area. Wooster advised that since this incident, there has been times when it appears that the mail in her mailbox had been tampered with. No mail or other items were reported stolen at this time. NIPD will attempt to identify this vehicle and the driver. Incident #: 1703200261 Dispatcher:

When the RP approached the crew they told her they were checking her lines to see if the trees needed to be cut back. RP had already talked with a different crew who said her lines were fine. RP told them to get off her property. RP would like police to talk to the Asplundh crew to advise they were trespassing and are lucky the RP does not want to press charges. Police will also call crew organizer to advise. 1345 hrs Lt. gone to speak with crew. On 03/21/2017, at approx. 1350 hours, I made contact with the Asplundh crew that had trespassed at 45 Rumrill Road. They had left Rumrill Road and I located them on Philmart Road, New Ipswich. All the crew members were identified and admitted to entering the victim's property through a closed gate. The three crew members were warned for Criminal Trespassing and encouraged to seek the owner's permission before returning. I did run a record check on all three crew members and one of the members had an active warrant for his arrest. He was taken in to custody and transported to the PD to be processed.
