I called resident and advised him of the complaint that I had received from RP. Resident advised that he called the RP in efforts to collect a debt that is owed to him for work that he did for RP over a year ago. The resident stated that he also sends RP a bill once a month requesting payment. I explained to the resident that the RP no longer wants him to call him or his business and he should cease all communication. I recommended that he use the court system to file a small claims suit; as it seems obvious that the RP isn't going to settle this debt. The resident stated that he understood and that he knew I had to do my job. Incident #: Dispatcher:
